FOREWORD BY THE ORGANIZER

A very warm welcome to all delegates attending the 15th PhillipCapital Investment Conference 2025!

We are proud and grateful to celebrate this milestone 15th edition with all of you, our valued clients, partners, and industry peers. Your continued support and participation have been instrumental in shaping this conference into the premier platform it is today.

We would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation to our Exchange Partner, Bursa Malaysia Derivatives Berhad, as well as to our Platinum, Gold, and Silver Sponsors for your generous support. Your partnership enables us to continue delivering relevant and impactful industry insights year after year.

This year's theme, "Adapting Investments to a Changing World Order & Protectionism," could not be more timely. The global investment environment is undergoing significant shifts, driven by rising protectionist policies, the reconfiguration of global trade flows, and the restructuring of economic alliances. These changes are redefining risk, opportunity, and the way capital moves across borders.

As investors, we must confront this changing world order with agility and foresight. From nearshoring and industrial policy reshaping global supply chains, to new regulatory landscapes and shifting geopolitical alignments, our ability to adapt will define future success.

To meet the needs of today's participants, we are pleased to continue with our hybrid format, offering both the dynamic interaction of in-person attendance and the flexibility of virtual participation. Whether you're joining us here or online, we trust that the sessions and conversations ahead will offer valuable perspectives to inform your strategies.

We also extend our sincere thanks to the Advisors and Organizing Committee. Your tireless efforts, behind-the-scenes coordination, and deep commitment have been key to making this conference possible.

As we dive into today's sessions, I encourage all participants to engage actively share ideas, ask questions, and explore new ways of thinking. This is a time to learn from one another and strengthen our ability to manage risk, identify opportunity, and adapt to the forces reshaping global markets.

Thank you once again for your presence and trust. Here's to a fruitful, thought-provoking, and inspiring conference.

Macquarie has been issuing Structured Warrants in Malaysia since 2014. We are the leading warrant issuer in Asia, and the only issuer active in four warrant markets in the region, namely Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand and Hong Kong.

As a Participating Organisation of Bursa Malaysia, Macquarie Warrants Malaysia has won various awards through the years, including 2023 Best Structured Warrants Issuer (Index Warrants), 2022 Best Structured Warrants Issuer (Index Warrants & Equity Warrants) and the 2021 Best Structured Warrants Issuer, at the respective Bursa Excellence Awards.

Macquarie Warrants Malaysia continually expands its product offering by adding a variety of warrant underlyings into its coverage. We currently issue warrants over Malaysian shares and Hong Kong shares, as well as index warrants over the Hang Seng Index, the S&P 500® Index, the Nikkei 225 Index and more. Macquarie's latest product offering includes warrants over the SPDR® Gold Trust, allowing investors to gain exposure to the gold bullion market.

We first introduced the Live Matrix warrants tool in Malaysia. Our consistent pricing is one of the reasons that makes Macquarie the leading warrant issuer in Asia. The Live Matrix tool is directly connected to Macquarie's market making system and indicates where Macquarie's bid and offer prices would be in a warrant, based on various price points in the underlying security, allowing you to make more informed decisions.

To help investors to improve their trading skills, Macquarie Warrants Malaysia offers a variety of educational resources, including seminars, webinars, educational videos, and articles. Furthermore, we provide continuous support to warrant investors – call or email us your questions.

Macquarie Warrants Malaysia currently issues structured warrants over the following underlyings:
